Lisa,

Taking Lorraine off briefly and just curious on your thoughts for trade impact estimates. It's not as straightforward as estimating glyphosate was, per Russ at Post [REDACTED] I think [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
Thailand is requesting that exporters certify 0.00 residues on exports. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] it seems [REDACTED]

Let me know your thoughts on this line of thinking/strategy.

Best,
Jake

Hi Lorraine,

Thanks for organizing the call last night. As mentioned on the call, any information that industry is able to put together on the economic impact that Thailand's paraquat and chlorpyrifos ban will have, would be useful for USDA's letter. I am including the relevant USDA and USTR POCs on this e-mail. Mark and Jake were on the call, were heavily involved in the past issue on glyphosate, and are the leads on the current issue for FAS.

Best,

Lisa
